The Brethren Home at Winona

The option offered by Mr. Taylor, the owner of Garfield Springs Cottage, expired in December. The Winona association purchased the building and now offers us a new option with more time. More than this they offer to close the deal with us at once and allow us to purchase the remaining shares as we can at the same price.

Several who spoke for shares in the fall are now unable to take them so that we have only 18 to count on. We should have more than twenty at least in order to have a controlling interest, and by our next conference have the entire forty and be sole owners.

Improvements at the park continue. The new canal is now completed and makes an island of the peninsula extending into the lake back of the inn. This will be beautified and laid out in lots. Work on the new street car line is to begin as soon as weather permits. Winona will then be connected in this way with most of our Indiana churches. The boys' school is to open next autumn. The building is to be located near the cottage we propose buying. The association has also purchased 135 acres more land to the east of the park which will be improved at once. Prominent eastern Christian workers are investing here with a view of having their summer homes at Winona.

Now if there are others, and there certainly are, who wish to be with us in the purchase of this beautiful home let them write as soon as possible. Let those who can send names of parties who might become interested if informed of the opportunity. Remember the terms, $25.00 down and the remaining $75 00 in six annual payments with interest at six percent.

The building has already been rented for next season at a good price. This will be ours if we purchase the building in time. For further particulars write the committee.
